The 31st iteration of the Davis Foundation’s Gross Path Review Course (formerly known as the “Gross Morbid Pathology of Diseases of Animals” course) was held at the Diagnostic Center for Population and Animal Health at Michigan State University. While held on the home turf of the MSU Spartans, the course was anything but!!!

Over sixty pathologists and trainees assembled in this beautiful facility to hear many of the local MSU staff review the salient points of gross pathology in a wide range of domestic and exotic animal species – 5-day, 36-hour course, without a single histologic image!

Speakers included a mix of the Foundation’s Faculty of Discussants covering their areas of expertise (Drs. Anne Lewis, Scott Fitzgerald, Matti Kiupel, Dalen Agnew, Bruce Williams), as well as newer instructors from MSU and local schools making their first lectures for the Foundation (Drs. Kathryn Eaton, Ingrid Bergin, and Rebecca Smedley). The winner of the annual Samuel W. Thompson award for Outstanding Lectureship was a tie this year, for the first time – Dr. Ingrid Bergin (Diseases of Rabbits, Guinea pigs, Hamsters and Gerbils) and Dr. Dalen Agnew (Diseases of Zoo and Exotic Species and Diseases of Fish) will each take home the award, which is given each year at the annual ACVP meeting.

Course director and local host Scott Fitzgerald spared no effort to attend to every detail allowing participants to focus on the subjects at hand and enjoy their every moment in East Lansing. This course will be a tough act to follow; but be sure to stay tuned for next year’s course at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville!

What’s New in Urinary System Pathology

This often neglected organ system includes the paired kidneys, urinary bladder, ureters and urethra. The kidney receives 25% of the cardiac output and contains more than 20,000 nephrons in some animal species. The high renal blood flow and complexity of anatomy ensure that the urinary system displays many different and critical lesions. These are important diseases, but many pathologists feel some trepidation in diagnosing these conditions correctly.

Help is at hand – in the form of this year’s ASVP Conference in Adelaide:

- Dr Rachel Cianciolo from Ohio State University, US and author of the urinary system section in the new “Jubb and Kennedy’s Pathology of Domestic Animals” will provide a comprehensive overview of urinary system pathology, including a guide to the various etiologies of canine glomerulonephritides and validation of novel urinary biomarker assays to detect renal injury.

- Professor Brian Summers recently retired from the Universities of Cornell (US) and latterly the Royal Veterinary College (UK) will present our highly popular pathology voting/clicker session as well as speak on “Surgical pathology - tips, pitfalls and worthless biopsies”.

- Dr Natalie Courtman, registered veterinary specialist, University of Melbourne will discuss clinical pathology of the urinary system.

- Dr Sophia Otto, a medical pathologist with SA Pathology, will present an account of human renal biopsies and the diagnosis of glomerular disease.

- Dr Allan Kossel will once again convene an expert panel in the very popular interactive mystery slide session.

- Dr Rod Reece, Department of Primary Industries NSW, registered veterinary specialist in Avian medicine, will present on avian urinary system pathology.

- ASVP member abstracts will be presented on day three of the program.

Please join us in Adelaide, Australia in October to experience this renal treat!
Dear Colleagues:

This is an invitation to present cases at the Histopathology Workshop on Friday, October 31, 2014, during the upcoming 8th Seminar of the Argentinian Division of the Charles Louis Davis Foundation to be held at the Faculty of Veterinary Science, National University of Central Buenos Aires Province, Tandil, Argentina.

We ask for interesting cases, with or without classical lesions, of known or unknown etiology. We will receive up to 16 presentations. The final date for submission of the cases will be June 1, 2014, or when we have received the 16 cases. Therefore, we recommend that if you plan to send a case, do it as soon as possible to reserve your place.

The blocks of the cases will be processed at the University of California, Davis. Approximately one month before the seminar, a set of histological sections of all cases submitted will be sent to each institution that have presented cases, so all participants can examine them before the workshop. The day of the seminar, each submitter will present his/her case in Power Point, having 5 minutes for that purpose, plus 3 minutes for questions and discussion.

If you are interested in submitting a case, please complete Abstract submission form below and send it by email to Karina Fresneda (kafres@yahoo.es). Once the abstract has been evaluated and accepted we will give you instructions for sending the block.

Submission form for the Histopathology Workshop at the 8th Seminar of the Argentinian Division of the Charles Louis Davis Foundation (no more than one page) shall include the following information: Submitter; Institution; Email; Accession Number; Species; Breed; Age; Sex Clinical History; Necropsy findings; Histological Description, Morphological diagnosis; Name of the condition; Etiology (if known)

Please do not hesitate to contact Karina Fresneda (kafres@yahoo.es) or Francisco Uzal (fuzal@cahfs.ucdavis.edu) if you have any questions.

Sincerely

Karina Fresneda and Francisco A. Uzal

Latin Comparative Pathology Group
The Latin Subdivision of the CL Davis Foundation
Travel Award - 2014

Purpose
The LCPG travel award is in support of the overall mission of Latin Comparative Pathology Group (LCPG), subdivision of the CL Davis Foundation. The LCPG strongly encourages veterinary professionals with a strong interest in veterinary pathology, including trainees, postdocs, graduate students and junior faculty, to participate and present their research work as well as use this opportunity to network with colleagues. The annual LCPG Travel Award is to defray some of the costs toward travel and lodging and to participate in the 2014 Annual Meeting of one of the following:

- American College of Veterinary Pathologists (ACVP) or
- American Association of Veterinary Laboratory Diagnosticians (AAVLD)

- The recipient will be awarded a one-time US$500 grant

Eligibility

- Candidates for the LCPG Travel Award must be veterinarians (graduated from any of the Latin American or Caribbean Schools), currently residing in Latin America and have demonstrated strong interest in pathology.
- English – The candidate should have enough understanding of the English language / English proficiency to be able to present at an oral or poster session. Proficiency might be demonstrated by a documented test score or an attested reference letter by their mentor or other faculty.
- Veterinarians applying must submit the completed application to Dr. Ana Alcaraz, Council member of the LCGP, at aalcaraz@western.edu
- Application form
- Curriculum vitae listing research projects, thesis and/or publications in the field of veterinary pathology
- A short essay highlighting how the applicant will benefit from attendance and participation in the ACVP annual meeting and how he/she will help further disseminate acquired knowledge upon return to their home country

Requirements

- Applicants must have an accepted abstract in the ACVP or AAVLD meeting (poster and/or oral presentation).
- The awardee will be required to present the results of his/her research at the LCPG Session at the ACVP Annual meeting. If the grant is awarded for the AAVLD meeting, the awardee is required acknowledge this price in his/her presentation.
- LCPG will not send any letter in support of VISA (immigration) requirements.

Timeline
Application receipt deadline by the LCPG will be September 30th 2014. The recipient of the award will be announced by email no later than October 10, 2014.

What does the AAVLD/USAHA Annual Meeting Offer Veterinary Pathologists and Trainees

AAVLD/USAHA Annual Meeting
Kansas City, MO
October 16-22, 2014

Pathology Meetings:

Friday October 17
8:00 am-6:30 pm - CL Davis Symposium

Saturday October 18
7:45-11:30 am - AAVLD Plenary Session
1:00-3:00 pm - Pathology Scientific Session
3:30-5:46 pm - Diagnostic Pathology Slide Seminar
6:00-9:00 pm - Gross Pathology Mock Examination

Sunday October 19
8:00-11:30 am - Pathology Scientific Session
1:00-3:00 pm - Pathology Committee Meeting

Monday October 20
7:30 am-12:00 pm - USAHA/AAVLD Joint Plenary Scientific Session

The American Association of Veterinary Laboratory Diagnosticians (AAVLD) is a world leader in advancing the discipline of veterinary diagnostic laboratory science to promote global animal health.

The AAVLD/USAHA Annual Meeting is an opportunity to attend and participate in the varied scientific presentations and committee meetings related to animal health and diagnostic procedures.

Travel and Awards
Trainees are encouraged to attend and present scientific papers, case presentations and posters. Competitive travel awards of $1500.00 are awarded to trainees who present scientific papers at the meeting.

In addition, the Pathology Committee sponsors the AAVLD/ACVP Award for the best pathology scientific paper and the recipient is provided $1000.00 to present the winning presentation at the 2015 ACVP meeting.

Opportunity
The AAVLD/USAHA meeting is a remarkable opportunity for trainees interested in diagnostic pathology to learn and develop professional networks that will be helpful throughout their career.

Reasons to Attend
- You are an anatomic pathology trainee.
- Prepare for the American College of Veterinary Pathology certification examination.
- Exam is free with Annual Meeting Registration.
- Develop professional networks.
